

To be eligible for participation in the Ignition Interlock Program, clients must:

Have the court's authorization to participate in the program.

Submit a copy of the Court Order of Driving Prohibition with the Ignition Interlock application to the Board.

Have 30 days or less remaining in their minimum prohibition term indicated on the Court Order of Driving Prohibition.

Be a resident of Alberta.

Take the Planning Ahead Course when the client is a first time offender.

Take the Impact Course for repeat or subsequent offenders.

Submit a copy of the Summary Report with the Ignition Interlock application to the Board.

Participate in the program a minimum of 6 months.

Have no other active or pending suspensions, of any type.

Ensure all other RC are met.

Have a valid Alberta driver's licence at the time of suspension.